

ONCOLOGY NURSING SOCIETY
NURSE NAVIGATOR (NAV) SPECIAL INTEREST GROUP MEETING
APPROVED MINUTES

DATE: Saturday, April 27, 2013
PLACE: Washington, DC, Walter. E. Washington Convention Center, Room 147
TIME: 12 NOON (ET) – 1:30 PM (ET)
RECORDER: Carol Bush

ATTENDEES: (List of attendees attached)

I. Welcome and Introductions

Lori McMullen, SIG Coordinator welcomed the group and introduced the Nurse Navigator SIG leadership team: Carol Bush, Coordinator-Elect, Dominique Srdanovic, SIG Newsletter Editor, Marie Borsellino, SIG Virtual Community Administrator, Ellen Carr and Jean Sellers, SIG regional editors.

II Review

L. McMullen reviewed resources available to SIG members via the Virtual Community, SIG page and Discussion Board. A brief overview followed of strategic goals and members were directed to the goals posted on the Virtual Community. A call was made for members to assist with developing a toolkit and to assist with international mentoring. The SIG leadership team collected names of volunteers.

III. ONS Core Competencies for the Oncology Nurse Navigator Workgroup

D. Srdanovic, member of the workgroup, gave a report on the work of the group to date. Draft Core Competencies were sent prior to Congress for expert review to nurse navigator colleagues. Finalization and release date are tentatively scheduled for November 2013. The workgroup is collaborating to prepare a poster presentation for the Care Coordination eConference hosted by ONS in October.

IV. Presentation

L. McMullen introduced Peggy Rummel, Nurse Navigator at the University of Pennsylvania and Meg Helsley, Nurse Navigator at Henrico's Doctor Hospital. Each gave power point presentations reviewing their individual center's process to create and implement a distress screening tool.

V. Networking

Following the presentations, the attendees engaged in networking individually.

VI. Meeting adjourned at 1:30 PM (ET).
